

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS (Tvrtko Zebec)	ix
PROGRAM ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS AND COMMENTARY (Irene Loutzaki)	x
INTRODUCTION (Elsie Ivancich Dunin)	xi
SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM	xiii

THEMEDANCE AND NARRATIVES*Dance, field research, and scholarly narratives

introductory lines by Selena RAKOČEVIĆ and Liz MELLISH 2

Selena RAKOČEVIĆ (Serbia)

Writing movements and music: hora de pomanã in ethnochoreological/
ethnomusicological narrative 3

Liz MELLISH, Nick GREEN (United Kingdom)

Revisiting practices commemorating the dead through dancing in Romanian Banat villages 9

Panel. Constructing dance narratives for dancing knowledge/stories:

a reflection on method(s) preamble and introduction by Georgiana GORE 15

Georgiana GORE (France)

Generating dance narratives through interviewing 17

Gediminas KAROBLIS (Norway)

Dance and communism(s): how deep does it go? 20

Siri MÆLAND (Norway)

Narratives about knowledge-in-dancing 22

Dance narrative theme presenters (alphabetical order):

Gürbüz AKTAŞ (Turkey)

Wolf and Lamb (kurt-kuzu): a theatrical dance of southern Turkey 25

Barbara ALGE (Germany)

Moors, Emboabas, and Nazaré: narratives on a horse pageant in Brazil 31

Vesna BAJIĆ Stojiljković (Serbia/Slovenia)

Staged folk dance in theatrical narratives 37

Linda DANKWORTH (United Kingdom)

Narrative and aesthetic representations of gender in Mallorquin dance 43

Ann R. DAVID (United Kingdom)

Feminine narratives of selfhood: Punjabi women's song and dance 49

Elsie Ivancich DUNIN (United States/Croatia)

Korčula's Moreška and its Turkish connection: shipbuilders and the bula 55

Catherine E. FOLEY (Ireland) Tearmann : narrative in a folk theatrical production of Siamsa Tíre , the national folk theatre of Ireland	61
Gonca GIRGIN-Tohumcu (Turkey) Choreographing narrative and narrated choreographies: Gypsy style dancing images in Turkish cinema in the 1960s	66
Andrée GRAU (United Kingdom) Dance and narratives of womanhood	72
Cornelia GRUBER (Austria) Embodied narratives: Are we still fighting, or Are we dancing?	78
Lucie Burešová HAYASHI (Czech Republic) Dancing poetry in Japanese nō theatre movement: narratives in the choreography of Hagoromo	84
Daniela IVANOVA-NYBERG (United States/Bulgaria) Giving a name – giving a life: Bulgarian folk choreographer speaking	90
Vesna KARIN (Serbia) Dance and words: dance practice of the Serbs from Lika in Bačka	96
Nadine KRSTIC (United States) Dancing through sparks , Korčula's sword dance Moreška enters the 21st century (film presentation)	101
Berna KURT Kemaloğlu (Turkey) A critical analysis of the narratives about the Atabari dance	102
Belma KURTIŞOĞLU (Turkey) Ontological shift of what halay narrates	108
Bülent KURTIŞOĞLU (Turkey) Hasan the bandit and the hero from Debar-Drama	114
Irene LOUTZAKI (Greece) Greek traditional dance as staged performance: cultural representations and signifying practices	118
Margarida MOURA (Portugal) Traditional dances of Madeira Island: narratives in motion	123
Koraljka Josipa NEFEROVIĆ (Croatia) Interweaving of narratives with the Kolo of the Bokelian Mariners	129
Mohd Anis Md NOR (Malaysia) Ramayana epic: corporeal narratives in Southeast Asia	135
Judith E. OLSON (United States) Changing narratives of authenticity among heritage groups and folk dancers	139
Mehmet Öcal ÖZBILGIN (Turkey) Köroğlu knife dances	145
Miriam PHILLIPS (United States) Nostalgic narratives: paths between Kathak-Flamenco collaborations	150

Nicholas ROWE (New Zealand) Post-identity applied ethnochoreology: Talking Dance narratives	156
Ana RUXANDRA (Poland) Embodied narratives of self and otherness in competitive Latin dancing	162
Nancy Lee RUYTER (United States) Ethnic dance, world dance, cultural forms, or "???" (research report)	168
Sani SARDELIC (Croatia) A poem about kunpanija (a sword dance event) in Žrnovo village 1928	169
Turid Nøkleberg SCHJØNSBY (Norway) Narratives and gesture in early modern dance	173
Allison Jane SINGER (United Kingdom) Dancing ourselves – the personal narratives of dance: a source for healing	179
Stephanie SMITH (United States) City folk : a narrative of creating community in America through English country dance (film presentation)	185
Placida STARO (Italy) Ruggero: between poetry and dance	191
Daniela STAVĚLOVÁ (Czech Republic) Narratives as a tool for understanding the inner side of dance in a socio-cultural and political context	198
Daniel TÉRCIO (Portugal) Narratives on the Limp's dance	204
Joëlle VELLE (France) Discourse in situation: tools of acquisition of dance knowledge	209
Pegge VISSICARO (United States) Narratives of difference: quadrilhas caipiras of São Paulo, Brazil	215
Sonja ZDRAVKOVA-DJEPAROSKA (Republic of Macedonia) Narrativization of Macedonian traditional dances	220

THEME

DANCE AS INTANGIBLE AND TANGIBLE CULTURAL HERITAGE

Panel. Music and dance as intangible and tangible cultural heritage: Croatian experiences introduction by Tvrtko Zebec (panel coordinator)	228
Joško ČALETA (Croatia) Traditional performance and the question of ownership: ojkanje and silent dance on the UNESCO lists	230
Ivana KATARINČIĆ (Croatia) Tango dance practices in dance schools in Croatia: the tango's multiple identities	235
Iva NIEMČIĆ (Croatia) The internet presentation of the Intangible Cultural Heritage based on the example of sword dances in Croatia	238

Tvrtko ZEBEC (Croatia)
Reinterpreting (national) intangible heritage: how do we present ourselves?	243
Panel. Challenges in safeguarding variations in the Norwegian traditional dance and music introduction by Marit Stranden (panel coordinator)	247
Sjur VIKEN (Norway)
Accentuation of beats in asymmetrical triple meter	248
Marit STRANDEN (Norway)
Variations in traditional dances	249
Ivar MOGSTAD (Norway)
The relation of Norwegian round dances to northern European music	249
Dance as intangible and tangible cultural heritage theme presenters (alphabetical order):
Egil BAKKA (Norway)
Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage (ICH) and the role of community	253
Tonko BARČOT (Croatia)
The Sokol movement and folk dance heritage on the island of Korčula	258
Kateřina ČERNIČKOVÁ (Czech Republic)
Nine years of distinction: Slovácký Verbuňk and folk dance heritage	264
Chi-Fang CHAO (Taiwan)
Local versus world culture: Intangible and Tangible Cultural Heritage on Taketomi Island	269
László FELFÖLDI (Hungary)
From tangible to intangible: sword dance of the Saxons in Transylvania	274
Nina GRAEFF (Germany)
Embodying candoblé dances: safeguarding intangible heritage	280
Edy GREENBLATT (United States)
Israel's successful strategies for creations and dynamic preservation of recreational Israeli dance worldwide	286
Marija HAJDIĆ (Croatia)
Why and how museology represents Moreška as Intangible Cultural Heritage	292
Linnea HELMERSSON (Sweden)
Dance as sin or a joy: influence of religion on safeguarding of traditional dances	297
Maria I. KOUTSOUBA (Greece)
Greek perspectives on the Intangible Cultural Heritage of dance	303
Dariusz KUBINOWSKI (Poland)
From fieldwork to staged reconstruction of dance traditions	309
Rebeka KUNEJ (Slovenia)
RZD-01-13-0003-03: the tangible form of intangible dance cultural heritage	315

Anna NYANDER (Sweden) Queer dance – old tradition becomes modern gender issue	320
Ivona OPETCHESKA-TATARCHEVSKA (Republic of Macedonia) Recontextualization of traditional dance culture in Macedonia	325
Gergana PANOVA-TEKATH (Bulgaria/Germany) Bulgarian traditional dance as a cultural heritage between east and west: continuity and innovation	330
Kendra STEPPUTAT (Austria) Tango , the not quite Intangible Cultural Heritage	336
Celia TUCHMAN-ROSTA (United States) Intangible heritage in motion: classical Cambodian dance at a New Years Festival in Siem Reap	342

Student presentations

Sara AZZARELLI (Italy) Dancing across gender boundaries: queer experiences in Bharatanatyam Abhinaya	349
Natasa CHANTA-Martin (Greece) A language that makes you dance : appropriation of and interaction with drum language in Yorubaland	352
Chiao-Hsin CHEN (Taiwan) Embodied cultural heritage: harvest ritual dancing in indigenous community Makotaay, Taiwan	356
Christopher S. DICK (Austria) Movement and music: a motion capture analysis of capoeira's ginga	360
Konstantinos DIMOPOULOS (Greece) Dance configurations/patterns in space and time: the example of communities in the zone of Agrafa, Karditsa, Greece	364
Ronald KIBIRIGE (Uganda) Continuity challenges of tradiitonal dancing in multi-ethnic Uganda: the case study of Myel Bwola	368
Tamás KORZENSZKY (Hungary) Traditional Hungarian Romani/Gypsy dance practices in Transylvania to Romanian electronic pop-folk music	372
Jared Jonathan LUNA (Philippines) All Style All Stars : streetdance freestyle and competition in Manila, Philippines	376
Jeanette MOLLENHAUER (Australia) Translated traditions: comparative study of tradiitonal dance and music in Sydney, Australia	380
Shanny RANN (Malaysia) Potency of dance form analysis: decoding a (secret) Tibetan Lama dance	385

APPENDICES

Biographies of contributors	391
Abstracts for symposium presenters without submitted papers: Sergio Bonanzinga, Theresa Buckland, Andrea Conger, Fariye Dinçer, Yolanda van Ede, Helene Ericksen, Andriy Nahachewsky, Mats Nilsson, Elina Seye, Tamara Tomic-Vajagic, Hanna Walsdorf, Debbie Williams	397
Informal discussion abstracts: Kendra Stepputat and Miriam Phillips	401
"Some closing thoughts" by Allegra Fuller Snyder	402
Moments during the 2014 symposium	404