

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

Introductory Remarks .....	7
I. How to read and teach canonical texts and feminist poet(h)ics
SILVANA CAROTENUTO: Pedagogy, Poetry and Politics: A Feminist Poet(h)ics .....	13
LAURA SARNELLI: Antigone's Legacy. Some Feminist Readings .....	33
DURRE AHMED: The Perpetually Receding Horizon: A Feminist View of Quranic Interpretation .....	41
II. Trauma, testimony, embodied narratives of the past
NATKA BADURINA: Testimony Between Historiography and Literature .....	59
NEJRA NUNA ČENGIĆ: Noise, Silence, Voice Life Stories of Two Female Peace Activists from BiH .....	69
JASMINA LUKIĆ: The Language of the Body as the Language of Trauma in J. Žbanić's Feature Films Grbavica and Na putu .....	89
IRINA NOVIKOVA: Post-Socialist Politics of Memory and Women's Narratives of their Past: Baltic Context .....	101
III. Autobiographies and graphic self-expression between activism and art
VITA FORTUNATI: Memory as a Complex Act in Women's Autobiographies: Four Case Studies .....	125
TINA PAVLOVIĆ: Negotiation of Identities: an Analysis of Nawal El Saadawi's Autobiographical Texts .....	145
JULIA WATSON and SIDONIE SMITH: Lives in Outline: Women, Autobiography, and Recent Graphic Memoir .....	161
SLAĐANA MITROVIĆ: Transgression as a Form of Female Expression .....	173
IV. Narrating our work, questioning ourselves
ULLA VUORELA: Brothers and Sisters as Significant Others .....	189

NATALIA PUSHKAREVA: “We Don’t Talk About Ourselves”: Women Academics Recall Their Path to Success .....	197
VIKTORIJA RATKOVIĆ: Narrating Our Work, Questioning Ourselves: Dilemmas of Migration Research .....	217
GAYATRI CHAKRAVORTY SPIVAK: “Capital As Medicine and Poison: Teach! Use! Says Spivak” .....	229
In memoriam Ulla Vuorela (1945 – 2011).....	247